SECURITIES LITIGATION)

Order

Before the Court is the parties' joint motion to (1) extend the deadlines for potential claimants to act on their notices; and (2) reschedule the settlement hearing. [D. 136]. In support, the parties state that four brokers did not receive timely notice of the settlement, and 6,300 notices were sent to potential class members only a few days before the deadlines to act on their notices. The Court finds the motion well-taken. The parties' motion is GRANTED, and the new dates are as follows:

1. The deadline for potential claimants to request exclusion from the class or file objections is November 10, 2016.
2. The deadline for potential class members to submit a proof of claim is November 25, 2016.
3. The settlement hearing will take place on December 12, 2016, at 1:30 p.m.
4. Lead Plaintiff has until December 2, 2016, to file a brief addressing any objections or requests for exclusion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
